

Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement

Managed Care guidelines require authors to disclose any potential conflict of interest regarding their involvement with pharmaceutical companies and the like, before the publication of articles written for healthcare professionals. This information may be published along with your article.

Name:

Title of Article:

1. Are you now receiving an honorarium or other financial benefit or have you received an honorarium or other financial benefit during the last three years from a commercial company relevant to your participation in this activity?
 Yes No
If yes, name of company: _____
Amount: _____

2. Are any of your research activities now receiving direct or indirect support from a company relevant to this activity or have they been during the last three years?
 Yes No
If yes, please comment: _____

3. Are you currently serving or have you served during the last three years as a paid consultant or member of an Advisory Board to a commercial company relevant to this activity?
 Yes No
If yes, please comment: _____

4. Do you or a member of your immediate family have any investments in any company participating in this activity that might reasonably give rise to a real or perceived conflict of interest relevant to this activity?
 Yes No
If yes, please comment: _____

5. Are there any other relationships between you and a commercial company that may be currently relevant to your participation in this activity?
 Yes No
If yes, please comment: _____

Signature _____ Date _____

Please sign and return this letter, and retain a copy for your files.